

The California Association of Local Agency Formation Commissions is proud to present a new CALAFCO University Course, hosted by Santa Clara LAFCo ...

Understanding Health Care Districts and the Role of LAFCo

ABOUT THIS COURSE

This course presents a timely understanding of the dynamics of health care district regulations, challenges and trends, and the role and methods by which LAFCo can evaluate and regulate these public agencies. It features a distinguished list of legal, health care, economic, finance, policy and LAFCo experts. Participants will learn about:

- ♦ History, today's challenges and trends, and future directions of health care districts
- ♦ California health care district laws and regulations
- ♦ Impacts of health care reform and intergovernmental reimbursements on district operations and services
- ♦ Regulatory aspects of the Cortese-Knox-Hertzberg Act
- ♦ Public finance law and revenue mechanisms for districts
- ♦ How LAFCo can develop an effective framework to evaluate health care districts, as part of the Municipal Service Review process, for service adequacy, capacity, financial indicators, etc.
- ♦ Governance options for ailing health care districts
- ♦ Challenges unique to urban and rural health care delivery, and to districts that operate or formerly operated hospitals
- ♦ Service delivery outside of district boundaries, private hospitals seeking to become districts ... and more!
